President's Message

The autumn leaves have slipped of the trees and mostly disappeared into bags and alleyways, reminding us that summer is over and routines are beginning. The CRTA Board members have been busy in Calgary and Edmonton looking after the interests of CRTA and ARTA. The October ARTA AGM was the scene of an Honorary Life Membership presentation to Chuck Rose to acknowledge Chuck's many years of service to ARTA. Gordon Cumming became the new vice president. In this role he will assist Marlene Reddekopp from Grand Prairie, the newly chosen president of ARTA. There are several CRTA members serving on various committees and in different elected offices. Thank you to each of them for their commitment to Alberta retired teachers.

October 25th was a delightful day for many CRTA members when they journeyed to Red Deer Lake School to share the day with the Foothills Retired Teachers Association and take part in their conference activities. "Nourishment for the Heart, Mind and Body: One Day Conference for Retirees" was a very informative experience accompanied with good food and collegiality. A heartfelt thank-you goes to the FRTA members for making us feel welcome and sharing their conference with us.

Many of our retired colleagues have over the years served the CBE and CCSD as substitute teachers, only to learn this year that they would not be (re)-hired in September 2010. Your president and vice president were able to speak about this matter to the superintendents of both organizations to express the view of CRTA that the mere fact of retirement should not be used to exclude them, fully qualified teachers, from applying for available work. The meetings were conducted in a cordial atmosphere and CRTA's concerns noted.

By now you may have received a letter containing a cheque and an explanation of the Long Term Disability/Demutualization and other Benefit Fund Surpluses. Thank you to all the present and past CRTA members, Earl Hjelter, Dr. Sandra Anderson and the staff at Johnson Inc. who worked tirelessly on the process of bringing this issue to a successful conclusion. There is more information on this subject further in this newsletter for your perusal.

Under Gordon Cumming's capable leadership the Steppin'Out committee has been putting together a list of speakers and activities for the April 29th edition of Steppin'Out 2011. Be sure too mark your calendar and be at the Greenwood Inn at the Dalton Conference Centre on April 29, 2011. You will not be disappointed in your choices.

December 8th at the Carriage Inn will bring CRTA members together with CBEREA members for a joint Christmas luncheon. This is a new endeavour by our two social committees. Bring your friends from teaching, encourage those newly retired teachers to attend and come for a traditional turkey dinner followed by some special entertainment. Be sure to check the deadline elsewhere in this newsletter.

As you gather with family and friends during the festive season, "may Peace be your gift at Christmas and your blessing all year through!" Anon

Presentation of ARTA Life Membership to Dr. Charles Phillip Rose

Since 1963, Charles Phillip Rose, better known to us all as Chuck, has made an impact on the educations of kids and the lives of colleagues in Calgary and across Alberta.

As a classroom teacher, program consultant, and administrator at the school and district level, he demonstrated a commitment to developing the best opportunities for students, and ensuring professional development programs for staff. His commitment to being knowledgeable and developing his own abilities led to his earning a Doctorate in Elementary Education. His passion for the 'Education of Educators' continues to this day as he mentors aspiring school administrators, while he is instructing and assisting with the M.Ed, Program in Western Canada for Gonzaga University.

Chuck has always been committed to his Profession. As an active member and leader in the Health and Phys.Ed Council since 1963, he was equally at home in a classroom, gymnasium, behind a podium, or pulling the strings of his Double Bass while the crowd went 'wild' Calgary teachers fondly remember him as the first full-time President of Local #38 ATA, who became their 'face and voice' during their first strike in 1971. After six years of Local involvement, he later served four years as Vice-President of the Provincial ATA.

Soon after retirement, Chuck was introduced to the apparent shortfalls and inequities of Teacher Pensions in Alberta, compared to other Provinces. Never one to leave the work to others, he soon became active and a leader in both CRTA and ARTA.

CRTA was fortunate to have Chuck move through the Committee chairs to become President. His term was highlighted by growth in membership, Society status for the branch, resolution of the Long Term Disability dispute with the Calgary Board of Education, and the development of extensive opportunities for Retirees with the "New Dimensions in Retirement" program. The continuing struggle with the Pension issues saw him leading delegations to productive conversations with the Premier and Minister of Education.

ARTA involvement started with the Pension issue, but Chuck's abilities were soon put to work on the Representative Committee. Those years of his involvement saw the emergence of the new Governance model of ARTA with organizational changes that have resulted in greater engagement and involvement of Retirees across the Province.

One cannot have a resume like this without a well-developed understanding of the issues, as well as a voracious appetite for work. You must have a willingness to commit personal time to the common cause as well as time for personal connection.

Robert Kennedy said, "It is not enough to understand, or to see clearly. The future will be shaped in the arena of human activity, by those willing to commit their minds and their bodies to the task." On behalf of his ARTA colleagues, we are in debt to Dr. Charles Phillip Rose for having understood and lived that thought.

These are the words of Gordon Cumming at the ARTA AGM in October 2011. Ed.

Appreciation

In addition to expressing appreciation for the support and patience of our members throughout, the CRTA would like to express heartfelt thanks to the following people who served to lead our efforts.

After identifying the issue, Irene Bruzga brought the matter to the attention of the CRTA early in 2002. In the early stages, the late Gordon Vincent, Gordon Branson and the unflappable, courteous and persistent Marj Weerstra led our efforts. When formal representation became necessary Paul Demers and Chuck Rose were appointed to represent the CRTA.

From the point at which the Alberta Teacher's Association accepted responsibility and offered to represent all employee groups, the ATA's efforts have been stellar. Clear and frequent communication became the order of the day, a process for input and discussion was put into place and followed, and there was no hesitation in drawing upon our leadership and expertise. Associate Executive Secretary, Earl Helter, is to be credited for that, along with ATA legal counsel, Dr. Sandra Anderson of Field Law. (Over the course of events, Earl has retired and is now a member of the retired teaching community.)

We have already expressed our thanks to Perry Dorgan and Shelley Malanchuk of Johnson Inc. for the professional and ethical manner in which they assisted all parties in the LTD portion of this issue and for the manner in which they served the court. Once again, Perry, Shelley and Savannah Koch of Johnson Inc. have agreed to serve and at minimal cost to our members and others involved.

The next edition of the Newsletter will be published in March 2011. In the meantime visit the CRTA and ARTA websites to stay current with news concerning retired teachers.
